THE LYON FAMILY OF WINDHAM COUNTY,
CONNECTICUT.

BY EUGENE F. MCPIKE, OF CHICAGO, ILLS.

OUR New England Lyon families are, "unquestionably, descended from the noble family of that name in North Britain, of which mention is so fully made by Burke in his 'Landed Gentry,' I., 779. Family records and traditions point in that direction. Besides, there are striking traits of character, common to those bearing the name in this country and to their trans-Atlantic ancestors."

"General Nathaniel Lyon descended, it is believed, in direct male line, from Hon. Sir Thomas Lyon, Knt., of Auldbar, Forfarshire, North Britain, who was designated Master of Glamis, brother of John, 8th Lord Glamis. Sir Thomas was one of the principal agents in the seizure of King James VI. at the Raid of Ruthren, August 23, 1582. Was banished to England. Returned again to Scotland, and with the Earls of Angus and Mar, seized Sterling Castle. Again fled to England. Returned, 1585, received again by the King to favor. Appointed Captain of the Guards, High Treasurer of Scotland, and Extraordinary Lord of Sessions. Knighted, 1590. Married, 1st, Agnes, daughter of Patrick, 5th Lord Grey, relict of Sir Robert Logan of Restalrig, and of Alexander, 5th Lord Howe. Married, 2nd, Euphemia, 4th daughter of Wm. Douglas, Earl of Moreton.

Issue: John, married a daughter of George Gladstone, Archbishop of St. Andrews.

Arms.—Arg. a lion, rampant, az. armed and langued, within a double tressure, flowered and counter-flowered, gu. crest.—A lady holding in her right hand the Royal thistle, &c., in allusion to the alliance with the daughter of the King.

Motto.—In te, Domine, speravi.

Political and civil troubles forced several members of this family to emigrate to New England in the seventeenth century. Thomas and Ephraim Lyon, who were brothers, came in Company. General Nathaniel descended from Ephraim.* The name "Ephraim" was used in three successive generations.

3. Ephraim¹ Lyon (Ephraim², Ephraim³). Born 1737. Settled in Ashford, Conn., where he died May 25, 1798. "He served for twelve months in the War of Independence, and afterwards became a successful farmer and lawyer in the town of Ashford." He married Esther Bennett. They had:

- i. Nathan⁴, born April 29, 1763; married Latimer Badger, 1788.
- ii. Esther⁴, born March 1, 1765; married Nathan Burnham, 1781.
- iii. Ephraim⁴, born March 15, 1767.
- iv. Zerviah⁴, born March 3, 1769.
4. v. Amasa⁴, born November 19, 1771; married Keziah Knowlton, January 3, 1805.
- vi. Lucy⁴, born December 24, 1773.
- vii. Betsey⁴, born June 25, 1776.
- viii. Lois⁴, born March 18, 1780.
- ix. James⁴, born May 11, 1784; married Polly Trowbridge, 1808.
4. Amasa⁴ Lyon (Ephraim⁵, Ephraim⁶, Ephraim⁷) was also a substantial farmer of Ashford. "In early manhood he took great interest in politics, entering zealously into the ardent contest which resulted in the elevation of Thomas Jefferson to the presidency." He died April 11, 1843. He married Keziah Knowlton, January 3, 1805.* They had:
 - i. Amasa Knowlton⁸, born July 4, 1806; died August 28, 1822.
 - ii. Marcus⁸, born July 3, 1809; died April 29, 1810.
 - iii. Delotia⁸, born October 15, 1811; married, April 10, 1837, Jno. W. Trowbridge.
 - iv. Sophronia⁸, born January 4, 1813; married Jno. W. Hasler.
 - v. Lorenzo⁸, born February 9, 1815.
 - vi. Elizabeth Ann⁸, born November 8, 1816; married Ebn. Knowlton.
 5. vii. Nathaniel⁸, born July 14, 1818.
 - viii. Daniel⁸, born November 14, 1819.
 - ix. Lyman⁸, born March 30, 1822.

5. Nathaniel⁸ Lyon (Amasa⁹, Ephraim¹⁰, Ephraim¹¹, Ephraim¹²), than whom few as loyal and brave ever lived, is familiar to all true Americans. The space allotted this article will not permit a sketch of his life and services. He died August 10, 1861, at the Battle of Wilson's Creek, in Missouri.

* A complete description of the maternal ancestry of General Nathaniel Lyon (that is, the Knowlton family) is given in a pamphlet entitled "Statue of Colonel Thomas Knowlton; Ceremonies at the Unveiling," published 1895 by Case, Lockwood & Brainard Company, of Hartford, Conn.

6. Isaiah³ Lyon (). Born 1742. Was, in all probability, a brother of (3) Ephraim¹ Lyon. The name of Isaiah Lyon appears among those who marched from the town of Woodstock for the relief of Boston in the Lexington alarm, April, 1775. He died August 25, 1813. He, with his wife, is buried in South Woodstock, Conn. He married Elizabeth — (born 1744). They had (at least):

7. i. Luther W.⁴

7. Luther W. —⁴ Lyon * (Isaiah³,) lived, and was probably born, in that part of Woodstock, Conn., known as "Quasset," in South Woodstock. He was a wool-carder, and a small factory now stands where his mill was. He also possessed a farm. His middle name may have been Wells. In that case it might be safe to assume that his first wife (Nancy Wells †) was related to him by blood, possibly a first-cousin. His signature (as it appears in letters written about 1840) usually reads "Luther W. Lyon." On the fly-leaf of a school-book entitled "Geography Made Easy," by Jedidiah Morse, D.D., A.A.S. (in the writer's possession), published in Boston in the year 1806, there appears, in a large open hand, this inscription:

Luther W. Lyon, Junr.
Property
Woodstock, Feby 20th, 1814.

Below this, in the handwriting of Luther Wells⁴ Lyon, appears these words: "my Father's hand-writing." As Luther Wells⁴ Lyon was, in 1814, a schoolboy of about twelve years of age, the book was, undoubtedly, his "Property," and the use of the term "Junr" would seem to imply that his father's name was also Luther Wells Lyon, and, as before remarked, this may have been the case. An old resident of Woodstock (now living) has this recollection of it. Luther W.⁴ Lyon was married twice. His first wife was Nancy Wells (who may have been related to him by blood). They had:

- i. Luther Wells⁵, † born May 6, 1802; married Martha Wardwell Fairfield, February 27, 1831; joined Putnam Lodge, No. 46. A. F. & A. M., town of Woodstock, Conn., November 1, 1837. Certificate of membership shows "Henry Wells, S. Warden," probably an uncle. Died near Bethalto, Madison County, Illinois, —, —.
- ii. Isaiah⁵ Lyon, born February 9 (?), 1804; married Mary B. Hutchcock, 1841. Died at Rockford, Illinois, January 23, 1883.
- iii. Nancy⁵, married, first, a "Johnson"; married, second, a "Ketchum."

* Luther Wells⁴ Lyon died in 1885; in his will, made in Madison County, Illinois, July 7, 1885, refers to his grandparents: "Isaiah Lyon, Born 1742, Elizabeth his wife born 1744 died in So. Woodstock. Isaiah Lyon died, Aug. 25, 1813."

† Nancy Wells was born April 17, 1781, and died January 3, 1815. Her father, Henry Wells, was born January 28, 1753; died October 14, 1823. Her mother, Nancy Shirliff Wells, born April 23, 1760, died April 24, 1815.

‡ Luther Wells⁴ Lyon (the writer's maternal grandfather) and his brother Isaiah⁴, and their half-brother George⁴ were, according to an oft-repeated, and undoubtedly true, family tradition, third-cousins of General Nathaniel Lyon in the direct male line. Therefore, their respective paternal grandfathers were, unquestionably, brothers.

His second wife was Rebecca Greene. They had :

- i. George Greene^b, born April 24, 1826 (taught school in Fall River); married Frances Maria Dunlap, December 15, 1847; died —.
- ii. Amy Ann^b, born March 20, 1818; married — Robinson; died April 20, 1861.
- iii. Rebecca Greene^b, born December 10, 1822; married a "Gibson"; now living in Brookfield.

In the records of Windham County the name "Lyon" is of very frequent occurrence, particularly in connection with the history of that part now known as Ashford, Woodstock, and Pomfret townships. Among the earliest recorded appearances of the name is about the time "Roxbury's Colony" was established. After the return to Roxbury of the men who had been sent to "spy out Woodstock," and after the plans had been fully discussed and "prayerfully considered," articles of agreement were drawn up on July 21, 1686. Among those who fulfilled the agreement and took personal possession of land in the "colony" appear the names of William Lyon, Sen., Thomas Lyon and William Lyon, Jun. William Lyon, Sen., and certain others, "were men advanced in years, going out with grown up sons to the new settlement, leaving estates behind them." None under nineteen years of age were admitted as proprietors. On Saturday, August 28, 1686 (O. S.), the company "met on Plaines' Hill" and drew lots as to locations, which resulted in Thomas Lyon securing sixteen acres, William Lyon, Jun., fifteen acres, and William Lyon, Sen. (jointly with Ebenezer Cass), the "South end of Plaine Hill, bounded east by common land." "Thomas Lyon's house was occupied by the first of November, and, doubtless, others were equally forward." "In 1704, the first school house was built on the common near the meeting house," and the second schoolmaster reported is Thomas Lyon. The writer realizes that the above has but little genealogical value, and presents it here merely to afford a glimpse at the early days of the Lyon family in Windham County.

The Official Register of Connecticut men in the War of the Revolution shows forty-five bearing the name of "Lyon," thus demonstrating that the "fighting qualities" of the family had not degenerated since the days of its ancient progenitor, Hon. Sir Thomas Lyon, Knt.

The nine named below marched from the town of Woodstock "for the relief of Boston, in the Lexington alarm, April, 1775."

To trace all the numerous branches of the Lyon family would, of course, be impossible. Enough has probably been presented to afford assistance to some subsequent "searcher of the records." Mention should not, however, be omitted here of the genealogy of Asa Lyon of Pomfret.

8. Jonathan¹ Lyon probably lived in Pomfret, Conn. It is not likely that he was closely related to the other members of the Lyon family previously mentioned herein. He was married twice, and had, in all, seventeen children, of but one of whom (16th child) can the name be now located. His second wife was Rebecca Maxley. They had (at least):

9. i. Asa², born December 31, 1763.

9. Asa¹ Lyon (Jonathan¹), born in Pomfret, Conn., December 31, 1763. A manuscript sketch of his life, written by a pupil of Asa¹ Lyon's (Rev. James Dougherty), states that "of his paternal ancestors no information remains farther than this: They came from England to Roxbury at an early period of the settlement of New England." Asa¹ Lyon graduated from Dartmouth College in 1791. Was ordained at Sunderland, Mass., October 24, 1792. Removed to South Hero, Grand Isle County, Vermont. Was appointed Chief Judge of that county in 1805, and served as such for nine years. Was elected a representative from Grand Isle County for several terms, and was a member of the Executive Council in 1808. Elected a member of Congress from 1815 to 1817. Was a member of the Corporation of the University of Vermont, from 1814 to 1821, inclusive. He is said to have been a second-cousin of Robert Burns, the Scotch poet. He was for many years, and until his death, an able preacher of the Gospel. He published sermons and patriotic addresses. Died at South Hero, Vermont, April 4, 1841. Sketches of his life may be found in Walton's "Records of the Governor and Council" (Vermont), Vol. V., pages 188 and 189; also 2nd Volume Vermont Historical Magazine, article "Grand Isle," by Rev. Simeon Parmelee, and in the Vermont Chronicle (published at St. Johnsbury, Vt.) for November 28, 1895. His portraits are in 2nd Volume Vermont Historical Magazine, Drake's "History of American Biography," and Deming's "Catalogue." He married Esther Newell. They had:

i. Esther², born 1799, married Daniel Brown; died March 25, 1842.

ii. Abigail², born 1801, married Abijah Hatch; died March 18, 1886.

iii. Newell².

AUTHORITIES NOT PREVIOUSLY MENTIONED.—"History of Windham County," by Ellen D. Larned (Warecester, Mass., 1874); Lamman's "Dictionary of Congress," etc. (Hartford, Conn., 1863); "Life of General Nathaniel Lyon" (Hartford, Conn., 1862), by the late Dr. Ashbel Woodward, whose son, Mr. P. H. Woodward, Secretary and Treasurer of the Hartford Board of Trade, Hartford, Conn., has most kindly and cheerfully extended permission to make any desired quotations from his father's work. This privilege has been freely used.

THE LYON FAMILY OF WINDHAM COUNTY,
CONNECTICUT.

By EUGENE F. MCPHER, CHICAGO.

On the character of the men of Roxbury, we find in "A History of Windham County, Connecticut," by Miss Ellen D. Larned (Worcester, Mass., 1874), this testimonial: "The town of Roxbury was one of the most ancient and influential in Massachusetts Colony. 'The Roxbury people were the best that came from England' and filled many of the highest offices in the colonial government."

Since the article published in the April number was prepared, Miss Larned (who resides in Thompson, Conn.) has kindly furnished the following genealogy of "the first William," which, she states, is based upon extracts from Mr. Henry A. May's "Genealogy of the Lyon and May Families" (as yet unpublished):

1. William¹ Lyon of Haton, Middlesex, England. Had:
 - i. William².

2. William³ Lyon (William¹): Came from London, 1635, in ship "Hopewell," aged 14. He was a Woodstock proprietor but never removed to the new settlement ("Roxbury's Colony"). He died 1692. Married Sarah Ruggles, June 17, 1646. They had:
3. i. John³, born April 16, 1647, married Abigail Polly.
 ii. Thomas³, born August 8, 1648, married Abigail Gould.
 iii. Samuel³.
 iv. William³.
 v. Joseph⁴.
 vi. Jonathan⁴.

Most of the Lyon families of Woodstock are descended from John and Joseph³.

3. Thomas³ Lyon (William², William¹): Was an original proprietor and settler of Woodstock. Died 1717.* His children, born in Woodstock, were:

- i. Thomas⁴, baptized 1703. Probably died in infancy.
 ii. Seth⁴, baptized March 24, 1704.†
 iii. Gould⁴, baptized February 14, 1706.
 iv. Noah⁴, baptized December 29, 1710.

Miss Larned adds that Mr. May's‡ genealogy mentions another son, Ephraim; but, if correct, Miss Larned is of the opinion that he must have been a son by an earlier marriage—that is, before coming to Woodstock, for the reason that records show:

Ephraim Lyon married first, June 13, 1707, Abigail Crosbie; married second, July 4, 1723, Alice Lomraim.

This would seem to receive support from the fact that Thomas Lyon was advanced in years when he married Abigail Gould, but Miss Larned rather inclines to the view that this Ephraim was not a son of Thomas, nor, perhaps, even closely related to him, but was of another branch of the family, and may have been the father of Ephraim Lyon of Ashford (born 1737), designated in April number as Ephraim³ Lyon.

The Town Clerk of Ashford reports that the name of Ephraim Lyon does not appear upon Ashford records until about 1775. This indicates that he was born elsewhere, possibly Woodstock. Records of Ashford do not show name of Isaiah Lyon at all. Miss Larned advises she cannot find record of birth of Isaiah Lyon in Woodstock. Probably both

* In the land distribution of 1724 thirty-one and one-half acres of land were received by the heirs of Thomas³ Lyon.

† Seth⁴ Lyon removed to Ashford and, in 1733, deeded to "Payson" thirty-two acres of Second Division land laid out to his father. Town records of Ashford show the children of Seth⁴ to have been:

i. Mary. ii. Persela. iii. Seth, Jr.

‡ Mr. Henry A. May, whose present address is No. 47 Florence Street, Roslindale, Boston, Mass., is secretary of "Roxbury Military Historical Society." He has been engaged for twenty-seven years or more in his genealogical researches, the results of which he expects to publish soon, together with a "History of Roxbury from 1630 to date of Annexation to Boston."

The genealogy of Ephraim Lyon of Ashford, given in April number, was based upon the late Doctor Woodward's "Life of General Nathaniel Lyon," and may, ultimately, be found to conflict with Mr. May's genealogy. On this point, Miss Larned writes: "Dr. Woodward was a most careful and painstaking writer, but he had not the opportunity, for research that Mr. May has had, and when he wrote, thirty-five years ago, there was far less interest in genealogical researches than at present, so that Mr. May is much more trustworthy with regard to the early history of the family." ☺

THE LYON FAMILY OF WINDHAM COUNTY,
CONNECTICUT.

THOSE interested in the ancestry of the Hon. Sir Thomas Lyon, Knt., of Auldbar, Forfarshire, North Britain, will find in Burke's "Peer-

† This affords an opportunity to correct a few small errors in the Record for October, 1897: Page 235, next to last line, should read "Heaton" or "Heston" instead of "Haton." The name of William¹ should have been preceded by reference figure "2." Page 236, reference figure "3" should have been placed before name of ii. Thomas², instead of before i. John². Page 237, "Life of Gen. M. Lyon" should read "Gen. N. Lyon." In the Index to Vol. XXVIII., page 260, the final "s" should be eliminated from the name, which should read "Martha W. Fairfield," instead of "Fairfields."

age, Baronetage and Knightage," under the head of "Strathmore," a lineage tracing back to Kenneth I., who reigned about 850 A.D. Of the latter, Robert the Bruce, himself, was a direct descendant, and as Queen Victoria is a lineal descendant from Robert the Bruce, the descendants of Hon. Sir Thomas Lyon, Knt., are related by blood to the reigning families of not only England but of Germany and other countries as well. Sir Thomas's progenitor, Sir John Lyon (son of John De Lyon of Forteviot), married Isobel, a daughter of King Robert II., of Scotland (founder of the House of Stuart), who was, therefore, a great granddaughter of Robert the Bruce.

It has also been said that President William McKinley is the thirty-second or thirty-third in descent from Malcolm* who killed Macbeth, and Malcolm was a direct ancestor of Robert the Bruce.

An interesting sketch of "General Nathaniel Lyon and the Fight for Missouri" is contained in The Midland Monthly (Des Moines, Iowa) for August, 1897.

The will† of Isaiah² Lyon,† of Woodstock, Conn., was probated December 27, 1813, in the District of Pomfret. In it are named his children: Alvan¹, Rufus¹, Peasly¹ (son), "my daughter, Betsey¹ Bolles" (probably married), and the son Luther W.¹ Lyon was made residuary legatee and sole executor. The witnesses were John McClellan, Amasa Carroll, and Joseph Albee, Jr., who subsequently made the usual acknowledgment before one of their own number, John McClellan, Justice of the Peace. The latter was a son of Captain (later General) Samuel McClellan, whose name appeared in The Record, October, 1897, page 237, as "McClelland," in error.

A letter dated Woodstock, July 11, 1841, written by Luther W.¹ Lyon to his son, Luther W.² Lyon, contains this item: "I would mention the death of your Uncle Alvin who died last March after a short sickness. He died at Stafford [word here illegible] with his family."

Mr. N. D. Skinner, Town Clerk, N. Woodstock, Conn., reports under date of April 19, 1897, record of Isaiah Lyon, born January 29, 1743, son of Aaron and Elizabeth; also another son of Aaron, Jonathan, born April 26, 1741. This Isaiah Lyon could hardly have been Isaiah², as the latter is supposed (with good reason, as shown) to have been a brother of Ephraim² Lyon (of Ashford) and, therefore, a son of Ephraim¹, and not of "Aaron." The parentage of Isaiah² and Ephraim² is, apparently, a difficult problem to demonstrate definitely.

ADDENDA.—Mr. Eben Putnam, genealogist, Salem, Mass., asserts that there was but the one Lyon family in Windham County, and that its ancestors came from Roxbury, Mass.; therefore General Nathaniel Lyon was a descendant of "the first William" Lyon, who came over from England in the ship Hopewell. In addition, Mr. Henry A. May, of 47 Florence Street, Roslindale, Mass. (who is probably the best authority on the Lyon family in America), makes the positive statement that General Nathaniel Lyon was a descendant of William Lyon, 1st, of Roxbury. In The American Antiquity, Vol. 11, published in New York, about 1881, is given a lineage which purports to show conclusively that the said "first William" Lyon of Roxbury descended from Sir Adam Lyon, Knight, first son of John de Lyon, Feudal Baron, etc. The latter's third son, Sir John Lyon, Knight (or Baron John de Lyon, Feudal Baron of Fortevon), was ancestor of the Earls of Strathmore. All this is somewhat in line with the traditions referred to by the late Dr. Ashbel Woodward, and reprinted in The Record for April, 1897, but Mr. Henry A. May advises that the said published lineage (New York, 1881) is one that has not been confirmed or proven. As to its accuracy the writer cannot say.

CHAPTER IX

LYON, WELLS, FAIRFIELD AND THURBER FAMILIES

DR. ASHBEL WOODWARD, in his Life of General Nathaniel Lyon (Hartford, 1862) says that unquestionably our New England Lyons are derived from the noble family of that name in North Britain, from whom are descended the Earls of Strathmore. Various attempts by different investigators, to confirm this alleged relationship, have been made in vain. It is not easy to cite any conclusive evidence touching the ancestry of one William Lyon, who, aged 14 years, emigrated from London, on the Hopewell, to Boston, in 1635. He settled in Roxbury; became a member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company; married Sarah Ruggles (born in England, April 19, 1629), and died about May 21, 1692, leaving issue, inter alia, John Lyon, born in Roxbury, in April, 1647, died January 15, 1703, having married May 10, 1670, Abigail Polley (born June 4, 1654; died Jan. 15, 1703), by whom he had:—

William Lyon, born in Roxbury, Sept. 15, 1675; died in Woodstock, Connecticut, Sept. 17, 1741; married, Nov. 8, 1699, first, Deborah Colborn (died April 18, 1714, aged 34), by whom he had:—

Aaron Lyon, born in Woodstock, January 11, 1706-7; died May 24, 1746; married, secondly, about April 9, 1740, Elizabeth Allen, by whom he had:—

Isaiah Lyon, born in Woodstock, Jan. 29, 1743; died in South Woodstock ("Quasset") Aug. 25, 1813; was, undoubtedly, identical with the Isaiah Lyon, private, in Captain Samuel McClellan's company, of Woodstock ("36 horses rode") in the Lexington Alarm, April, 1775. Among family heirlooms is a Hessian gun said to have been used by him in the Revolutionary War. This relic will presumably pass into the hands of his descendant, Mr. Charles LeRoy Goulding, a jeweler, of Alton, Illinois. Isaiah Lyon married October 24, 1765, Sibyl Ranney, by whom he had:—

Luther Wells Lyon, senior, born in South Woodstock; died about 1851; married, first, Nancy Wells, his cousin, by whom he had, inter alia:—

Luther Wells Lyon, junior, born in South Woodstock, May 5, 1802; was a Free Mason; migrated to Illinois about 1840; died not intestate near Bethalto, Madison County, Illinois, July 30, 1885. He, like others of the family; was buried in the private cemetery on the farming estate of his son-in-law, the late Wiley G. Preuitt, near Bethalto. This cemetery was afterwards publicly dedicated by the latter, as now appears of record in Book No. 74, page 379 of the County Recorder's office at Edwardsville. According to family tradition and indeed from his own lips, Luther Wells Lyon, junior, was a third cousin of the brave General Nathaniel Lyon who served in the Mexican War and whose firm stand in the War of the Rebellion saved Missouri to the Union, but at the cost of his life, at the battle of Wilson's Creek, in 1861. Owing to some possible differences in the method of determining cousinships, it is not quite certain whether their respective grandfathers were brothers or first cousins. Luther Wells Lyon, junior, married February 27, 1831, Martha Wardwell Fairfield (died in 1870) by whom he had issue several children, including:—

Nannie Louise Lyon, born in Woodriver township, near Alton, Illinois, February 8th, 1844; married Henry Guest McPike, of Alton, October 12, 1869, and had issue one only child:—

Eugene Fairfield McPike, born in Alton, July 18, 1870; married at Chicago, September 2nd, 1895, Ada Florence Denton; only surviving daughter of John Denton and Elizabeth Waddingham, his second wife.

* * * * *

Nancy Wells (the first wife of Luther Wells Lyon, senior) was born April 17, 1781, and died Jan. 3, 1815. She was a daughter of Henry Wells (born Jan. 28, 1753; died Oct. 14, 1823) and Nancy Shirliff, his wife (born April 30, 1760; died April 24, 1815).

Martha Wardwell Fairfield, wife of Luther Wells Lyon, junior, was a daughter of David Fairfield (born about 1778; died about 1817) of Woodstock, and Hannah Thurber (born about 1781, perhaps in Providence, R. I.), his wife, who were married in Providence, Dec. 7, 1797. Hannah Thurber's father was William Thurber, of Providence, who became later a merchant in New York. David Fairfield and Hannah, his wife, had several children, from one of whom is descended Mrs. Carrie Corbin (born Fairfield), of Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Corbin were married near Woodstock, Connecticut, at a point on the hills overhanging Putnam's famous wolf-den, which the present writer, as a boy, visited about 1878, during a brief sojourn in New England with his mother and maternal grandfather.

The first Fairfield was, at one time, according to family tradition, a large land holder in the town of Woodstock. He was married twice. By first wife had (at least) :

1. ¹ David.
 2. ² David Fairfield (—1) : In the "Vital Records of Rhode Island," Vol. VII., page 428, under heading of "Elder James Wilson's marriages," appears this statement : "David Fairfield of Woodstock, Conn.,

and Hannah Thurber, of Providence, R. I., pub. by Rev. Mr. Snow in Conn., in Dec. 7, 1797." They were, at the time of this event, nineteen and sixteen years of age, respectively. David² Fairfield died twenty years later, leaving his widow with nine children, all of whom lived to reach maturity. Children were:

- i. ¹ Mary, born — ; married Nathan Richmond, — ; died January 27, 1862, aged 63 years.
- ii. ¹ Jason Williams, born August 30, 1800 ; married Hannah Dana Chandler, December 27, 1825 ; died June, 1873.
- iii. ¹ Prudence ("Prudy"), born — ; died March 8, 1839, aged 36 ; unmarried.
- iv. ¹ Martha Wardwell ("Patty"), born —, 1804 ; married Luther Wells Lyon, February 27, 1831 ; died May 21, 1870, in Madison County, Ill.
- v. ¹ Lucy Ann, born July 16, 1806 ; married Thomas Williams, December 28, 1825 ; died April 12, 1879.
- vi. ¹ Hannah Thurber, born January 26, 1808 ; married Franklin Nichols, Banker, October 17, 1839 ; died July 15, 1894, in Norwich, Conn.
- vii. ¹ David, born — ; died — ; unmarried.
- viii. ¹ George, born — ; now living in Salinas, Cal.
- ix. ¹ John Tharber, born — ; married Mary Catherine Watkins — ; died August 19, 1886.

NOTE.—The father of Hannah Thurber, William Thurber, removed from Rhode Island to New York City, and engaged in the wholesale grocery business in Burling Slip. He had two daughters living in New York ; one, named Lydia, married an "Anderson" (an importer of fine cloths) ; the other daughter married a "Murray," who, according to family tradition, had a large tailoring establishment.

NOTE.—The writer is indebted to Mr. Amos Perry, Secretary and Librarian of the Rhode Island Historical Society, for the information that a ten-paged pamphlet "Genealogy of Thurber Family" (published some time since), "contains no William of the proper age to have been the father of Hannah who married D. Fairfield, of Woodstock, Conn." Mr. Perry adds that the "Thurbers" came from town of Rehoboth, Mass.

NOTE.—¹ Jason Williams Fairfield was the father of Mrs. Caroline (Fairfield) Corbin, the talented authoress and writer of Chicago, one of whose sons, John Corbin, Esq., is an Associate Editor of Harper's Magazine.

NOTE.—The genealogy of Luther Wells Lyon, husband of Martha Wardwell Fairfield, was given in THE RECORD for April and October, 1897, in articles entitled "The Lyon Family of Windham County, Connecticut."

Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. MacPike:

I have read with interest your letter of October 28th, and was interested in all you say.

It is impossible for me to use any Corbin material. My Genealogy of the Corbin Family appears in Volume IV, copy of which I am anxious to buy for several libraries which neglected to make a purchase when Volume IV was issued.

Volumes I, II, III, and IV are all sold, and I have just heard from the printers that two copies only remain of the entire edition of Volume V, issued in June. I recently bought a copy of Volume III.

I enclose clippings from the Boston Transcript of a review of Volume III and also a review of Volume V.

As you are interested in Genealogy, I am perfectly willing to send you a copy of either Volume III or Volume V. I bought Volume III recently for some library, and naturally would like to get the two volumes into libraries which have failed to purchase the same. If what I have above written meets with your approval, I will ask The Plimpton Press, Norwood, Mass., to send either one or both copies, namely Volumes III and V, to you at once, and to send a bill to you, at $15.00 for each volume, on January 1st, which you can pay at your convenience on or before January 31st.

I shall put your letter of October 28th in the proper folder, so that when I get to the Lyon and Wells Families, I can write to the persons you kindly mention.

Sincerely yours,

Clarence W. Bowen

Dear Sir:

Your letter written sometime about the 1st of October of this year desiring information as to the ancestry of one HENRY WELLS and his wife NANCY SHIRTLIFF was duly received by me but placed with other papers. This day in sorting these papers I discovered your letter and have been looking through the Woodstock Vital Statistics in order to report to you. No doubt you realize that previous to 1880 no pains were taken about births, marriages and deaths by the authorities, that is to have them recorded as the Statutes paid but scant heed to the matter. Hence, the vital statistics of Woodstock which cover the period from 1686 down to present time but especially up to 1880 do not always contain the desired information. I do know a Mr. Henry T. Wells who resides in the Town today. Has one sister. Mr. Wells, I think, is over 70 years of age. His sister is older. His father's name was Erastus Wells, and I think his grandfather's name was Henry Wells.

Now in looking over the records I do not find the Henry Wells you refer to and the name of Shirtliff does not appear in any of the records.

Am quite sure if you address a letter to Henry T. Wells, South Woodstock, Conn. he will be quite sure to give you some information or give you the name of some one that can get the information for you.

Very truly yours,

Robert E. Harris

Mr. Eugene Fairfield MacPike,

Dear Sir:

Replying to your circular communication under date of January 22nd. The family history data compiled some years ago by Mr. Edwin P. Wells, nephew of my father, George W. Wells, has never been published. We have personally had compiled, however, in manuscript form, record taken from his data which we would be glad to show you should you at any time find it convenient to call here to see it.

Since compilation we have undertaken through the College of Arms in London and otherwise, to verify and complete the record as to Nathaniel Wells, first, to confirm that he was actually the original ancestor, and second, his place of birth and date in England. Some doubt as to Nathaniel Wells and his English connections has been suggested by individuals with whom I have communicated in the last year or so, and therefore it is my desire to, if possible, straighten out this question.

Yours very truly,

J. Cheney Wells

Mr. Eugene F. MacPike,

Dear Sir:

This will acknowledge your letter of February 3rd to Mr. J. C. Wells who has gone South for about two months.

Mr. Wells and his brothers have known Mr. Clarence W. Bowen of Woodstock for many years, and I believe they know that he is preparing genealogies of the Wells family.

Thank you for sending the name of your friend, Mr. Ralph J. Beevor of London, which I shall refer to Mr. Wells upon his return. He may wish to look up Mr. Beevor sometime when he is in London.

Referring to the Wells pedigree, I do find Capt. Henry Wells and his wife, Nancy Shirtliff, and their daughter, Nancy, born April 17, 1781, who married Luther Lyon. He died January 3, 1815. These facts are the only ones given on the chart. Mr. Wells line, of course, is traced through Capt. Henry Wells, his son John Ward Wells and his son, Geo. W. Wells who was the father of Mr. J. Cheney Wells.

The book containing the manuscript weighs several pounds and the sheets number considerably over 100. It would be necessary to have Mr. Wells' permission to photostat this mss.

If you care to send Mr. Wells a copy of your note on the Wells families in Massachusetts which you sent to the London "Notes and Queries" I believe Mr. Wells would be glad to have it.

Yours very truly,

May E. Tambo.

Secretary to Mr. J. C. Wells.

Dear Sir:

I have carefully read over the notes you kindly sent with yours of the 9th, and in answer to your request for information on the two Thomases in question, I have made copies of the charts on these two Thomases which were sent to Mr. Wells by the College of Arms in London. Mr. Wells' line is neither of these Thomases, and if your ancestor was Henry Wells of Woodstock who appears on Mr. Wells' chart, they are not of your line either.

The data on Howard Wells I believe I am not acquainted with, neither have I seen this information in the data on Mr. Wells' line.

Yours very truly,

May E. Tambo.

Mr. Eugene F. MacPike,

My dear Mr. MacPike:

I hope you will pardon my delay in answering your letter of the 17th.

The copy of the LYON chart was received on the 23rd, for which I thank you. Do you wish this returned? If so I can take a copy and insert it in the Wells Family History at the right place.

In the absence of Mr. Wells I have taken the liberty of copying for you all the data which appears on the Wells chart. Although it is not in chart form it is complete, and I hope will be of some help to you.

As to the Henry Wells family bible, I do not know where it is, but in looking over the Wells History I have found copies of records from this bible which I enclose herewith.

I am also enclosing copy of information given on Capt. Henry Wells of the Sixth Generation.

Yours very truly,

May E. Tambo.

Handwritten text in Arabic script, likely a manuscript or a collection of notes. The text is arranged in approximately 15 horizontal lines, with some lines containing multiple columns of writing. The script is cursive and appears to be from a historical period. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and blurring, but some words and phrases are discernible, such as "بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم" (In the name of Allah, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful) at the beginning of the first line, and "الحمد لله" (Praise be to Allah) at the end of the last line. The text is written on a light-colored, aged paper.

(1) The first part of the paper is devoted to a general discussion of the problem of the existence of a solution of the system of equations
$$\frac{dx}{dt} = f(x, y, z), \quad \frac{dy}{dt} = g(x, y, z), \quad \frac{dz}{dt} = h(x, y, z)$$ where f, g, h are continuous functions of x, y, z in a certain region of space. It is shown that if the functions f, g, h satisfy certain conditions, then there exists a unique solution of the system of equations (2) which passes through a given point in the region.

Capt. Henry Wells of Westbury, R. I., was the 4th child of Rev. Thos.⁽¹⁾ and Sarah (Thompson) Wells, (Thos.⁽⁴⁾ Thos.⁽³⁾ Thos.⁽²⁾ Nathaniel⁽¹⁾ Wells) and was born in Westbury, R. I. Jan. 28, 1753, and died in South Woodstock, Conn. Oct. 14, 1823 at the age of seventy years. He married Nov. 30, 1779, for his first wife Nancy-Shircliff of Hopkinton, R. I. who was born Apr. 23, 1760, and died in South Woodstock, Conn. Apr. 24, 1815 at the age of fifty-five yrs. He married for his second wife ~~to~~ Coll. They had no children and did not live long together. Capt Henry⁽⁶⁾ Wells was captured by the British during the War of the Revolution. He was a prisoner on that floating hell, the "Jersey Prison Ship", for several months, but he was exchanged and returned to his home in Westbury, in an emaciated condition and covered with vermin.

In 1800, he bought the farm known as Highland Lake Farm, in South Woodstock, Conn. from a Mr. Hindley.

Capt Henry⁽⁶⁾ Wells left this farm to his son, John Ward Wells, from whom it came into possession of Lewis Judson⁽⁶⁾ Wells. Capt. Henry⁽⁶⁾ and Nancy (Shircliff) Wells had nine children, all of whom were born in Hopkinton, R. I. with the exception of the last two who were born in South Woodstock, Conn. He was captain of the first company of Hopkinton, R. I. in the war of the Revolution in which same company, his father, Thos.⁽⁵⁾ Wells, served as an ensign throughout the war.

Then follows a list of the children as given on list.

My dear Mr. MacPike:

Answering your letter of March 2nd, I am sorry that I am unable to give you any information which will help you to determine whether Nancy Wells and Luther Wells Lyon were "cousins". The only reference to Luther Lyon in the Wells History is as follows:

"Nancy Wells, born April 17, 1781, and died in East Greenwich, R. I. January 3, 1815. She married Luther Lyon of that place. There are no further records."

It would appear, however, that there may have been a Wells in the family previous to Luther Wells Lyon, Sr., inasmuch as his middle name is "Wells".

I will indeed be glad to let you know if I ever learn where the Henry Wells family bible is, and I will inquire of Mr. Wells upon his return from Florida sometime in April.

Referring to the last paragraph of your letter, none of these facts check with any in the Wells History. A Samuel Ruggles of New York is mentioned as marrying Mary Rosalie Rathborne, daughter of Eunice Wells Rathborne, who was the sister of Capt. Henry Wells. X

Now I wish to thank you most kindly for your thoughtfulness and generosity in sending me the check. I can assure you this was a decided surprise. During Mr. Wells' absence I have had more of an opportunity to look up these genealogical questions, and I have been glad to do it. If there are any further questions I can answer for you I will be only too pleased to do so.

Yours very truly,

May E. Tambo

Mr. Eugene F. MacPike,

Chicago, Ill.

My dear Mr. MacPike:

Acknowledging your letter of March 19th, I will inquire of Mr. Wells upon his return if he is interested in obtaining data regarding the family of Nancy Shurtleff. Inasmuch as he has not made an effort to secure information upon any other family than Wells I doubt if he will be interested.

I am keeping in mind asking him about the Henry Wells Family Bible.

I have read the photostat copy of letter from Mr. Benj. Shurtleff to you, and I note toward the end of the letter he desires facts regarding Nancy Shurtleff, her husband, their children, whom each married and the principal dates for those people. Some of this information you will have from the material I sent you, but it is not as complete as the data which I am giving you below, which you may wish to transmit to Mr. Shurtleff.

My dear Mr. Pike:-

I was pleased to receive a package from you which you sent to my country home, Bald Hill, Woodstock, Conn. and from there forwarded to my house in New York City, 5 East 63rd Street. I have been looking over the proofs and shall examine it more carefully. I see you have done a lot of work on the Lyon, Wells, Fairfield and Thurber families. I have been working for many years on the Lyon family. Members of the Wells family whom I have consulted cannot go back as you have done in the Wells family. I congratulate you on the work you have done and appreciate your thought in sending me proofs. Please accept my sincere thanks.

Sincerely yours,

Clarence W. Boutwell

My dear Mr. MacPike,

I hope you will pardon my neglect in writing you. I had no idea I allowed so much time to get away before answering. I am working on the history of Revere much to the neglect of other things. In compiling the Shurtleff book I had a terrible time to get any data on your family not even a single date concerning Nancy or her husband. Still I can give you some facts which you haven't. She was the daughter of Sylvanus Shurtleff born in Plympton Mass (formerly a part of Plymouth) Jan. 11, 1734/5 died in Ashford Conn. before 1809, married Sarah Ward the daughter of Jacob Ward. He was a tailor and in 1765 then living in Providence R. I. moved to Ashford Conn. purchasing a piece of land there. In 1773 he bought another piece of land there and in 1778 his wife received land from her father. They had four children. Nancy who married Henry Wells of Woodstock Conn. She gave up claim of her father's estate in 1809. Sylvanus born about 1765 in Ashford married Huldah Burr born in Ashford Jan. 16, 1765 died in Ashford. They had one only child, illegitimate (as Sylvanus & Huldah were not married). Susanna born 1765-1770 in Ashford. Nothing further known. Betsey born in Ashford, married there Nov. 13, 1814 Frederick Chaffee born in Ashford March 6, 1767 died in West Springfield Mass. Jan. 1, 1837. Of these four children I have Sylvanus family down to the time my book was printed and Betsey's four children's births but nothing more. I simply could not get a line on any of them and of your Nancy I knew nothing. I was dependant on Sylvanus family for my information and they told me all they could. They knew almost nothing of the relatives.

Now for the ancestry. Sylvanus Shurtleff was the son of John Shurtleff born in Plympton Mass. Nov. 8, 1707 died in Rehoboth Mass.

about 1743 married in Dymington April 15, 1754 Abigail Fuller born in Dymington lived to be over 90 years. She married secondly in Attleboro Mass. Jan. 3, 1750 John Robinson and had 3 or more children. Then she married a Mr. Capron for a third husband. There were four Shurtlett children. Sylvanus, Silas, James, Drusilla.

John Shurtlett was the son of Abiel Shurtlett born in Marshfield Mass.
June 23-30, 1666 died in Dymington Oct. 28, 1732 married in Plymouth
Jan. 14, 1695/6 Lydia Barnes born in Plymouth July 4, 1674 died in Dymington
Sept. 10, 1727 dau. of Jonathan and Elizabeth Hedge who were married Jan. 4, 1665/6. Elizabeth Hedge born in Yarmouth Mass. May 21, 1647 died Plymouth
Dec. 15, 1731 dau. of Capt. William Hedge (died 1670) and his first wife. Jonathan Barnes born June 3, 1643 died in Plymouth Aug. 20, 1714 son of John and Mary Thummer who were married Sept. 12, 1633. She (Mary) died in Plymouth June 2, 1651 and he 1671.

Abiel Shurtlett was the son of William Shurtlett born in England
May 16, 1624 probably in the parish of Ecclesfield, in the West Riding of Yorkshire in that portion called Hallamshire died in Marshfield, Mass. June 23, 1666 (killed by lightning) married in Plymouth Oct. 18
1655 Elizabeth Lettice born in England 1636 died in Swansea Mass.
Oct. 31, 1693 dau. of Thomas (d. 1681) and Ann (d. in Plymouth July 2, 1687, 81 yrs)
Elizabeth Lettice married secondly in Plymouth Nov. 18, 1669 Jacob Cooke whose first wife was Damaris Hopkins. Elizabeth Lettice married third in Plymouth Jan. 1, 1685/9 Hugh Cole. All of this taken from my book of the Shurtlett family published in 1912. I was voluminous should you have the place of Nancy's birth in death and the same of her husband and date and place of their marriage. I would like it. I would also like their children first and middle names with date and place of birth, death and marriage of each - whom each married with date and place of birth and death of the same. Wish I could have found you when writing my book so many people simply would not answer but still many did and many were much interested in the work. Hope the above will be of some use to you.

Most Sincerely

Sylvanus Shurtleff (son of John) born in Plympton, Massachusetts, January 11, 1734/5; died in Ashford, Connecticut, before 1809. Moved from Providence, Rhode Island, in 1765, to Ashford, Conn. Married Sarah Ward, (daughter of Ichabod) and had several children, among whom a daughter, Nancy, born April 30, 1760; died April 24, 1815. She gave quitclaim of her father's estate in 1809. (1)

Nancy Shurtleff (daughter of Sylvanus Shurtleff and Sarah Ward, his wife) married Henry Wells (born January 28, 1753; died October 14, 1823), of Woodstock, Windham County, Connecticut. (2) They had issue, among whom a daughter, Nancy Wells, who became the first wife of her first cousin, Luther Wells Lyon, senior, of South Woodstock ("Quassett"), Conn. Luther Wells Lyon, senior, died about 1851. (3)

Luther Wells Lyon, senior, and Nancy Wells, his first wife, had issue, among whom a son, Luther Wells Lyon, junior, born in South Woodstock, Conn., May 5, 1802, who married Martha Wardwell Fairfield, February 27, 1831, the latter being a daughter of David Fairfield and Hannah Thurber, his wife, who were married at Providence, Rhode Island, December 7, 1797. (4)

Luther Wells Lyon, junior, and Martha Wardwell Fairfield, his wife, had several children, among whom, a daughter, Nannie Louise Lyon, born in Woodriver Township, Madison County, Illinois, February 8, 1844 (died September 18, 1923), who, as his second wife, married Henry Guest McPike, at Alton, Illinois, October 12, 1869. (5)

Henry Guest McPike (born at Lawrenceburg, Dearborn County, Indiana, July 6, 1825; died at Alton, Illinois, April 18, 1910) and Nannie Louise Lyon, his second wife, had issue, one only child, a son, Eugene Fairfield MacPike, born at Alton, Illinois, July 18, 1870. (6)

My dear Mr. Pike -

Since you are listed in "Who's Who in Genealogy" as wanting information about Fairfields I shall take the liberty of writing to you, as I did several years ago when I lived in Council Bluffs, Iowa.

In the meantime my brother, Wynn Fairfield, has moved to Boston and I to Elgin and we have found as much Fairfield material that we are hoping to have a fairly complete family record by 1938, three hundred years after John Fairfield came over.

The Fairfield family in Woodstock, however, we have as yet been able to do very little with, because the necessary vital records of Connecticut have not been published and my brother has not the time to look them up in person nor the money to employ a genealogist to do so. We have had some correspondence with a Miss Wheaton of Putnam and have found her interested but without much information.

You have probably seen Bowen's History of Woodstock in five volumes. From it we have learned that there was a Walter Fairfield in Woodstock in early days (as well as your David, the David of the census of 1790 and Mrs. Eleanor Fairfield).

Brown calls her Fairchild in one place but I think that is chance mistake.)

Bowen seems to print all family traditions as they come him, even when they contradict each other and are not corroborated by public records. For instance, it is stated that your Hannah Thuermer was the daughter of William Thuermer and his third wife Eleanor Hugh Thuermer, his first two wives being Martha Wardwell and ——— Martin, if my notes are correct. According to the vital records of Rehoboth ^{Mass. Providence, R.I.} and ~~Connecticut~~

Martha Wardwell m. John Thuermer, May 9, 1771
Hopestill Martin m. Samuel Thuermer, May 15, 1748
Eleanor Irwood (b. 1776 and d. 1855) m. John Thuermer Oct. 15, 1797
William Thuermer m. Anna Bacon.

Hannah Thuermer ^{b. 1763} is given as the daughter of Joseph and Rebecca Hannah Thuermer b. 1770 " " " " John and Lucy
Hannah Thuermer b. 1796, in Providence
According to Bowen, Mrs. Eleanor Thuermer, your Hannah's mother, m. ——— Coburn. He died in 1787 and she returned to live with her daughter, Mrs. David Fairfield who was not married I think until about 1798 and was quite young then).

Woodstock Vital Records give Mr. Ebenezer Coburn as marrying Mrs. Eleanor Fairfield (Fairchild in Bowen) May 28, 1777.

Bowen gives them four children but the Vital Records of Woodstock give these same children to Ebenezer and Dorcas Coburn.

An Eleanor Cuff married a Wm. Fairfield March 29, 1762 in Gloucester, R.I., but we have no further R.I. records about them.

This is all very confusing.

The Walter Fairfield who lived in Woodstock where David did might be the son of Nathaniel Fairfield and Gertrude. They were living in South Killingly, Conn. in 1768 with four children, Walter, Samuel, Nathaniel and Selah.

We find Nathaniel and Gertrude living a few ^{years} later in Plainfield, New Hampshire, and eventually in Pittsford Vermont, where they are buried with their sons Samuel and Nathaniel, but no son Walter is in there.

This Nathaniel can be traced back to John of Wrentham.

We have found no further records about the David Fairfield who is listed in the Connecticut Census of 1790, since he was too old to be your David if your family records about the latter's birth are correct.

Hence, in 1804 a David Fairfield was living in Lancaster Co., Penn., where his son Hugh was born, and died in 1812. Hugh, eight years old, was then bound out to his brother David. Leonard K. Fairfield of Buffalo is a grandson of this Hugh.

Your David, if born 1776-1779, would be too young to be the son of the David listed in the Conn. Census of 1790 as a "male over 16". Mrs. Eleonor Fairfield, head of a household in the same census, had "one male over 16, one male under 16 and two females".

My purpose in writing just now is to ask whether there is someone in your family connection now living in the East who could look up ^{in person} the vital records of the ^{the} Counties in Connecticut near Woodstock and find where the two Davids were born, and Walter of Woodstock, in fact all Fairfields and their vital records in that part of Connecticut. I think there would not be many

Or is there someone vitally connected with it to employ a genealogist to do this? My brother could prevent any waste of time by telling just where to look and what to look for.

Perhaps I am wrong in assuming that you have not yet traced your ancestry back to David. In that case, if you have, will you tell me what you have found?

Yours sincerely,

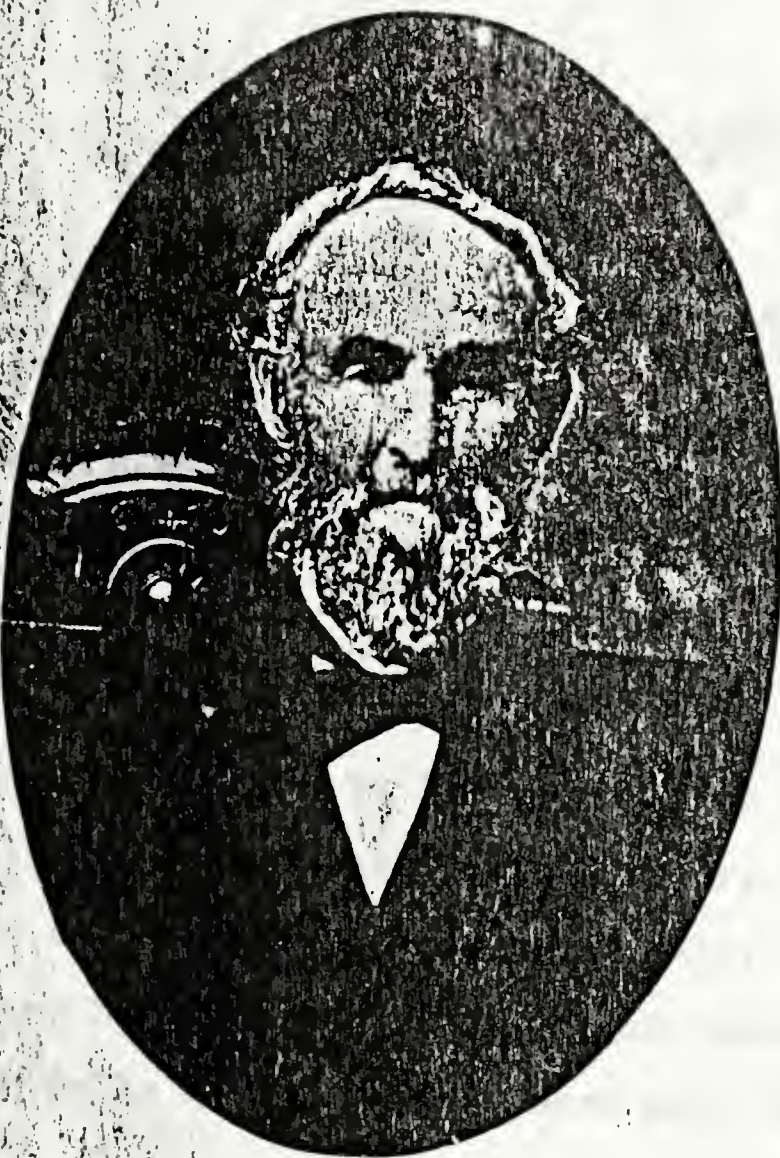

Alice Fairfield Saam

(Mrs. Theodore Saam)
